Overview

Aaron Rathod is a civil litigation attorney whose practice includes litigation and appellate matters. He brings a background in legal research, writing, and analysis, informed by his judicial clerkship and experience across several areas of law. Prior to joining Chasan Lamparello Mallon & Cappuzzo, PC, Aaron served as a Judicial Law Clerk to the Honorable Greta Gooden Brown, Presiding Judge of the New Jersey Superior Court, Appellate Division, Part D. During his clerkship, he worked on complex legal matters, drafted memoranda and opinions, and conducted extensive legal research and analysis. His prior experience also includes work with the New Jersey Attorney General's Office, Deutsche Bank, and the Richmond County District Attorney's Office, where he gained exposure to securities and financial law, litigation, and criminal law. Aaron earned his Juris Doctor from St. John's University School of Law in 2025. During law school, he served as Articles & Notes Editor of the New York International Law Review and as a Senior Staff Member of the Moot Court Honor Society. He received the Dean's Award for Excellence in Advanced Research & Writing in International & Comparative Law and the St. John's Law School Student Leader Award. Aaron is fluent in Hindi and Gujarati and is admitted to practice in New Jersey. He is currently pursuing admission to the New York Bar.
