Overview

Jessica Wisowaty is a litigation attorney whose practice focuses on Personal Injury Protection (PIP). She brings a background in appellate practice, legal research, and litigation to her work. Prior to joining Chasan Lamparello Mallon & Cappuzzo, PC, Jessica served as a Law Clerk to the Honorable Lisa Rose, J.A.D., of the New Jersey Superior Court, Appellate Division. During her clerkship, she drafted bench memoranda, reviewed motions, and assisted with draft opinions. Jessica also gained litigation experience at McOmber, McOmber & Luber, where she worked on matters involving the New Jersey Law Against Discrimination and the Conscientious Employee Protection Act, as well as discovery and client-related matters. Jessica earned her Juris Doctor, cum laude, from Seton Hall University School of Law in 2025. While in law school, she served as Managing Editor of the Seton Hall Journal of Legislation and Public Policy, received the 2025 Award of Excellence in Labor & Employment Law, and was recognized for her service to the Journal. She also published an article examining police questioning in hospital settings and its implications for custodial interrogation. Jessica earned her Bachelor of Science, summa cum laude, in Homeland Security, with a minor in Criminal Justice, from Monmouth University. During her undergraduate studies, she competed on the Women's Track and Field Team and served as Secretary of the Homeland Security Honor Society. Jessica is admitted to practice in New Jersey.
