Overview

Lydia Yeom is a civil litigation attorney whose practice focuses on insurance coverage, defense and civil litigation. She represents insurance companies and their clients in tort-based liability matters. Prior to joining Chasan Lamparello Mallon & Cappuzzo, PC, Lydia served as an Assistant Prosecutor in the Trial Unit of the Hudson County Prosecutor's Office. She also served as a Judicial Law Clerk to the Honorable Marc C. Lemieux, A.J.S.C., of the Superior Court of New Jersey in Freehold. During law school, Lydia served as President of the Asian/Pacific-American Law Students Association, was Moot Court Team Coach for the Marshall-Brennan Constitutional Literacy Project, and interned at the New Jersey Office of Attorney General, the Ocean County Prosecutor's Office, and for the Honorable David M. Ragonese, J.S.C., in the Superior Court of New Jersey, Criminal Division. Lydia holds a Master of Global Affairs and Policy degree from Yonsei Graduate School of International Studies in Seoul, South Korea and a Bachelor of Arts degree in Philosophy from the Pennsylvania State University.
