Overview

Michele L. DeLuca is an experienced civil litigation attorney concentrating her practice in commercial litigation, contract litigation, and public entity defense. Michele is a member of both the New Jersey and Tennessee State Bar and has represented private and corporate clients, municipalities, and individuals in a wide range of complex commercial matters, business disputes, breach of contract disputes, civil rights actions, employment disputes, constitutional actions, environmental litigation, and construction defect matters. She has also successfully litigated toxic tort matters, insurance coverage disputes, shareholder disputes, consumer related matters, product liability, premises liability, governmental matters, and collection matters, from case inception to verdict. She has a proven record of success in obtaining summary dispositions, favorable settlements, and post-judgment resolutions. Prior to joining Chasan Lamparello Mallon & Cappuzzo, PC, Michele worked at several respected New Jersey and Tennessee law firms where she handled a vast array of civil litigation matters. Michele obtained an undergraduate degree magna cum laude from York College of Pennsylvania in 1999. She then obtained a Juris Doctorate degree from Seton Hall University School of Law in 2003.
