

CHASAN LAMPARELLO MALLON & CAPPUZZO

A PROFESSIONAL CORPORATION

Edna J. Jordan

PARTNER

EMAIL

ejordan@chasanlaw.com

PHONE

201-809-6027

Overview

Edna J. Jordan is an experienced civil litigation attorney focusing her practice on residential and commercial tax appeals, land use, and zoning matters.

Prior to joining Chasan Lamparello Mallon & Cappuzzo, PC, Edna worked at a respected NJ law firm handling property tax appeals, residential & commercial real estate, land use and zoning matters. From 1997 to 2010, she also performed the duties of the municipal prosecutor for the Borough of Teterboro. After obtaining a Juris Doctor from Thomas M. Cooley Law School in 1988, Edna clerked with the Bergen County Prosecutor's Office.

In 2018, Edna was appointed by the New Jersey Supreme Court to a four-year term as a member of the District VI Fee Arbitration Committee. In 2020, Edna was appointed Panel-Chair of the Committee.

Practice Areas

- › Real Estate Tax Appeals
- › Zoning, Land Use and Redevelopment

Education

- › Montclair State University, 1983 BS
- › Thomas M. Cooley Law School, 1988 JD

Bar Admissions

- › New Jersey

Court Admissions

- › United States District Court for the District of New Jersey