Overview

Leonard V. Jones is a civil litigation attorney with Chasan, Lamparello, Mallon & Cappuzzo, PC, focusing his practice on contracts, governmental entity representation, labor and employment law, and represents individuals, municipalities, counties, authorities, and school boards in various litigation and compliance matters arising under New Jersey's Tort Claims Act (Title 59).

Prior to joining Chasan, Lamparello, Mallon & Cappuzzo, PC, Leonard was an Associate with the Law Offices of Viscomi and Lyons for Liberty Mutual Insurance Company. During his tenure as an insurance defense attorney, he successfully defended numerous matters through jury verdict in various counties in New Jersey. Leonard has experience representing public entities and served as an Assistant Prosecutor with the Union County Prosecutor's Office, prosecuting cases involving narcotics, violent crimes, and economic crimes.

Leonard clerked in the Union Vicinage of the Superior Court of New Jersey—Family Division for the Honorable James P. Wilson, J.S.C. Mr. Jones graduated Rutgers School of Law in May 2014. He graduated Magna Cum Laude from Seton Hall University (B.A. Political Science, 2010), and in 2011 with a Masters in Public Administration, with a concentration in Public Service.

Leonard is a member of Alpha Phi Alpha, Fraternity Inc., the first intercollegiate Greek-letter fraternity founded for African-American Men. Mr. Jones is a 2015 fellow for New Leader's Council—New Jersey. While in law school, he was awarded the Eagleton Institute of Politics Governor's Executive Fellowship and selected as the graduation class speaker.
